Govt okays VGF of ₹3.7K cr to boost battery storage

Developers for BESS projects will be selected through competitive bidding

New Delhi, 6 September

he Union Cabinet has approved a scheme for providing viability-gap funding (VGF) for developing battery storage of 4 gigawatt (Gw) by 2030-31. The VGF for the battery energy storage system (BESS) will have an initial outlay of ₹9,400 crore and this will include a budgetary grant of ₹3.700 crore The VGF would be disbursed in five tranches and be linked with the various stages of implementation of BESS projects. The scheme is aimed at supporting the energy storage needs of the renewable energy sector, especially solar and wind.

Given their restricted hours/seasons of operation, energy storage ensures roundthe-clock green energy.

The VGF scheme for BESS projects was first announced in Budget 2023. Through the scheme, the Centre is aiming to bring down the cost of battery storage systems and increase their viability.

"By offering VGF support, the scheme targets achieving a Levelized Cost of Storage (LCoS) ranging from ₹5.50-6.60 per kilowatt-hour (kWh), making stored renewable energy a viable option for managing peak power demand across the country," said a statement by the ministry of power. The statement further said that 85 per cent of BESS projects under the scheme would be provided to the power distribution companies (discoms).

■ The viability-gap funding would be disbursed in five tranches

■ The scheme looks to support energy storage needs of the growing renewable energy sector ■ The scheme for battery energy storage system projects was first announced in the Union Budget 2023

■ Through the scheme, the Centre plans to bring down the cost of battery storage systems

"This will not only enhance the integration of renewable energy into the electricity grid but also minimise wastage while optimising the utilisation of transmission networks. Consequently, this will reduce the need for costly infrastructure upgrades," it said.

Developers for these BESS projects would be selected through a competitive bidding process, to be open for both public and private sector. This approach will foster healthy competition and encourage the growth of a robust ecosystem for BESS. attracting significant investments and generating opportunities for associated

HP, Uttarakhand to receive additional ₹1.1K cr

New Delhi, 6 September

The Cabinet on Wednesday approved additional allocation of ₹1.164.53 crore for an industrial development scheme for Himachal Pradesh and Uttarakhand.

The additional fund was required to meet the committed liabilities under the Industrial Development Scheme, 2017 for 774 registered units up to 2028-29.

approved as the total financial outlay of ₹131.90 crore was exhausted during April 2017-

"The requirement of an additional fund to meet the committed liabilities up to 2028-2029 is ₹1,164.53 crore. For allocation of this additional financial outlay, approval of the Cabinet was solicited under Industrial Development Scheme, 2017," an official statement said.

Briefing media about the decision, Union minister manufacturing and service The additional fund was Anurag Thakur said that 774 units were registered under the Himachal scheme and the additional fund will go to them.

These units have helped in creation of about 49,000 jobs. The government provides incentives under the scheme to companies for investment in these two states.

The incentives include access to credit and insurance. The statement said that all eligible new and existing industrial units on their substantial expansion in the sector located anywhere in Uttarakhand will be provided Central Capital Investment Incentive for Access to Credit (CCIIAC) at the rate of 30 per cent of the investment in plant and machinery with an upper limit of ₹5 crore.

The units are also eligible for reimbursement of 100 per cent insurance premium on insurance of building and plant and machinery for a maximum period of 5 years from the date of commencement of commercial production/operation.

No fresh registrations are allowed under the scheme

Sonia Gandhi writes to PM seeking agenda for special House session

Congress leader Sonia to Prime Minister Narendra Modi to point out that no agenda was listed for the special Parliament session, and to raise nine issues, including violence in Manipur and price rise, for discussion during it.

The issues listed by Gandhi include Centre-state relations, rise in cases of communal tension, border transgressions by China and the demand for a joint parliamentary committee (JPC) to investigate the transactions of the Adani business group in light of several revelations.

"I must point out that this special session has been convened without any consultation with other political parties. None of us have any idea of its agenda. All we have been communicated is that all five days have been allocated for government business," Gandhi said in her letter.

"We most certainly want to participate in the Special Session because it will give us an opportunity to raise matters of public concern and importance. I earnestly hope that time will be allocated under the appropriate Rules for a discussion and debate on these issues," she said.

According to her party colleague Jairam Ramesh, this is the first time no agenda has been discussed or listed in the business of the House.

Seeking time to hold a discussion on the nine issues raised, Gandhi wrote of the "continued agony faced by people of Manipur and breakdown of Constitutional machinery and social harmony in the State". She also brought up the rise in communal tension in different states such as Harvana.

Politicising functioning of Parliament: Pralhad Joshi

Parliamentary Affairs Minister Pralhad Joshi on Wednesday accused Congress leader Sonia Gandhi of trying to politicise the functioning of Parliament and create unnecessary controversy.

Joshi's response came after Gandhi wrote to Prime Minister Narendra Modi to point out that no agenda was listed for the upcoming special session of Parliament. She also proposed that nine issues, including violence in Manipur and price rise, be listed for discussion during the session.

'It is very unfortunate that you are trying to politicise the functioning of Parliament, our temple of democracy, and create unnecessary controversy," the parliamentary affairs minister said in his response to Gandhi.

she listed the continued occupation of Indian territory by China and "challenges to our sovereignty on our borders in Ladakh and Arunachal Pradesh". Gandhi also raised the "urgent need for a caste census".

She listed for discussion the issues of damages inflicted on Centre-State relations and the impact of natural disasters caused by extreme floods in some states and drought in others. Besides, the chairperson of the Parliamentary Congress Party pointed to the current economic situation with focus on increasing price rise of essential commodities, growing unemployment, rise in inequalities and distress of MSMEs also to be discussed during the upcoming ses-

Gandhi also said the commitment made by the Government of India to farmers and farmer organizations in regard to MSP and other demands raised by them also need to be discussed.

"I earnestly hope that in a spirit of constructive cooperation, these issues will be taken up in the forthcoming special session," she said.

Listing the contents of Gandhi's letter to the prime minister, Congress general secretary Ramesh said at a press conference that the prime minister is in panic and is "fatigued". He also alleged that there "autocracy" was prevailing in the
